Disclaimer

In the eventuality that the eighth ERS Lung Science Conference cannot be held or will have to be changed due to events beyond the control of the ERS (force majeure) or due to events which are not attributable to wrongful intent or gross negligence of the ERS, the ERS cannot be held liable by participants for any damages or costs or loss incurred, such as transportation costs, hotel or accommodation costs, financial loss, etc.

Under these circumstances, the ERS reserves the right to either hold the entire registration fee and to use it for a future ERS Lung Science Conference, or to reimburse the registration fee after the deduction of the costs already incurred for the organisation of the eighth ERS Lung Science Conference and which could not be recovered from third parties.

The ERS reserves the right to modify the programme, which is published as an indication only.

The ERS is not responsible for any bodily or material damage sustained by participants during the eighth ERS Lung Science Conference, which is not directly the fault of the ERS. Each participant is responsible for his or her own insurance for such events.

Any litigation stemming from the above contract will be tried in Lausanne, Switzerland where the Swiss law is exclusively applicable.
