

SWITZERLAND

PRM national training representative responsible: Dr J. HAMMER

Status of national recognition: Since 1996 Paediatric Respiratory Medicine is a board-certified speciality in Switzerland. Training is performed in accordance to a special training programme with a duration of 3 yrs, which leads to the title of "Paediatric Pulmonologist" (Facharzttitle "Pädiatrischer Pneumologe"). Training centres are defined as "type A institutions" when they can offer full training and as "type B institutions" when they can provide two-thirds of the entire training programme.
